

(ii) The FDIC has indicated that, based upon the association's proposed post-conversion operating plan, the association would achieve a capital level acceptable to the FDIC within a period satisfactory to the FDIC.

§ 563b.26 Viability of converted savings association.

(a) An application of a SAIF-insured savings association to convert pursuant to this subpart may be approved by the Office in its discretion if it finds that the SAIF-insured savings association will be a "viable entity" following the conversion.

(b) A converting SAIF-insured association is a "viable entity" if:

(1) As part of the plan of conversion:

(i) The capital being infused into the association through its conversion is sufficient to cause the converted or resulting association to be adequately capitalized; provided that the OTS, in its discretion, may require higher capitalization as it deems appropriate for safety and soundness reasons; and

(ii) The converting association, its proposed conversion, and any acquiror(s) comply with applicable supervisory policies; and

(2) The transaction taken as a whole is in the best interest of, and does not present potential for injury or detriment to, the converting association, the federal deposit insurance funds, or the public interest.

§ 563b.27 Application for voluntary supervisory stock conversion.

A savings association may apply for OTS approval of a voluntary supervisory conversion pursuant to this subpart by filing the following information and documents in accordance with the procedures specified in § 563b.29 of this subpart:

(a) A plan of conversion adopted by a majority of the directors of the association, which shall contain at a minimum the name and address of the savings association; the names, addresses, dates and places of birth, and social security numbers of the proposed purchasers of conversion stock and their relationship to the savings association; the title, per-unit par value, number, and per-unit and aggregate offering price of shares of conversion stock to be authorized and issued; the number and percentage of shares of conversion stock to be purchased by each investor, the aggregate number and percentage of shares of conversion stock to be purchased by directors, officers and their affiliates and associates (as defined in § 563b.2(a) of this part); a description of the liquidation account, if required under § 563b.28 of this subpart or if otherwise established; and certified copies of all resolutions of the board of directors relating to the Plan.

(b) A copy of any agreements between the savings association and the proposed conversion stock purchasers.

(c) An opinion of qualified, independent counsel or an independent, certified public accountant regarding the tax consequences to the savings association arising from the conversion, or an Internal Revenue Service ruling that the transaction qualifies as a tax-free reorganization.

(d) A business plan, which shall contain a description of the proposed operating policies of the savings association or the resulting savings association following the conversion, including a statement as to how the conversion proceeds will be used, and a projection of the savings association's results of operations for the three-year period following completion of the conversion. The projections should show the continuing ability of the converted association to meet applicable capital requirements. The savings association shall specify the assumptions on which its projections are based.

(e) A Holding Company Act application, Control Act notice, or rebuttal submission for each proposed conversion stock acquiror as may be required under part 574 of this chapter, if applicable, and any required prior-conduct certification pursuant to RB 20¹ for each such acquiror.

(f) The proposed charter and bylaws of the converted savings association.

(g) The proposed stock certificate form.
